

STUDIO 50

The many collections which, in its first 50 years of history, were inspired by artisanal terracotta hold a special place in the Serenissima tradition. Thanks to cutting-edge production technologies, they were subsequently transformed into elegant proposals featuring evocative colours with improved technical performance.

Today, with STUDIO 50, Serenissima retraces the history of its tradition and its business successes, offering a new and trendy interpretation of ceramic terracotta and transforming it into a new material for architecture. A modern proposal, characterized by the material effect of the surface and unique metallic shavings that goes beyond the concept of ceramic terracotta to meet the needs of contemporary projects and design.

Available in six colours, from more traditional shades such as Perla, Sabbia and Terracotta to newer ones like Peltro, Corvino and Verderame, STUDIO 50 features a wide assortment of sizes ranging from 120x120 and 100x100 cm large size tiles to the more traditional 30x60 cm, ideal for creating original floor and wall arrangements, both in residential and in large architectural projects. The collection is rounded off with an outdoor proposal featuring a textured surface, in 100x100 and 60x60 cm sizes with a thickness of 10 mm and 19 mm, ideal for creating visual continuity between the indoor and outdoor areas of the project, both in residential and public spaces and in paved areas.
