

I LECCI

An expression of authentic timeless elegance, the new I Lecci collection by Serenissima enhances the extraordinary ability of porcelain stoneware to depict, through ceramic technology, the intimate beauty of natural wood. A palette featuring four nuances renders the wood-fibre of holm oak as a texture for architecture and design, emphasizing an utterly realistic surface with a wealth of details for fine environments, suitable for indoor and outdoor spaces that call for a distinctive style.

Gentile, Oliato, Verniciato and Classico are I Lecci of Serenissima, each rich in exclusive nuances and characterized by a unique personality. Gentile, the softest tone of the collection, is a balanced offering where the details of the type of wood take on a delicate aesthetic. Oliato calls to mind the intensity of oil-treated wood and gracefully highlights the wavy pattern of the product. Sophisticated and contemporary, Verniciato is popular for its bold colours, its burnished appearance makes it suitable for luxury creations. And, last but not least, the Classico variant, faithful to the original material, is versatile when paired with the other colours of the project and in material mixes of trendy mood boards.

I Lecci meets the needs of the most demanding of designers thanks to the range of sizes, from the large 20x180 cm slat tile and including offerings featuring a natural finish and R11 grip for the outdoors, also available with a thickness of 2 cm. The hankering for decoration is fulfilled by the exclusive 60x60 cm Intreccio and the impressive Glossy finish which expands the expressive potential of the Oliato and Verniciato colours.
