

PALAZZO

Stories of style and elegance come to life as the textures and colors of marble are reimagined in the contemporary context with the new Palazzo collection by Serenissima. With striking realism, the porcelain stoneware interprets eight famous marble varieties, celebrated for their beauty and versatility, suitable for both grand architectural projects and private spaces.

The marble-effect ceramic surfaces bring a multifaceted sense of luxury to contemporary design, expressed through the two available finishes—Natural and Silk—each capable of subtly altering the perception of the material. The elegance of the Palazzo Natural textures meets the contemporary trend of enriching interior design with sophisticated details, while the soft and gently lustrous Palazzo Silk finish enhances the warmth and comfort of any environment.

The collection's eight colors form a neutral palette, enriched with eclectic accents within the veined textures, ideal for pairing with other materials and even more vibrant shades. By design, Palazzo marble-effect tiles are also available in Palladiana, Intarsio, and Mosaic versions, emphasizing the distinctive appeal of every project.

Completing the collection, the 120x280 cm large format with Velvet finish evokes a tactile and visual sensation of softness, luxury, and depth—perfect for elegantly cladding walls and furnishing elements.
